Series information

The Education of Queenie McBride is the second book in this exciting LGBT young adult fiction series. The Trouble with Emily Dickenson, also by Lyndsey D'Arcangelo, is the first. Lyndsey's third book will be about gay marriage, but she has yet to reveal which characters from the first two books will tie the knot!

Back cover copy

Sometimes the most important education happens outside of the classroom.

Over-privileged and overconfident, Queenie McBride thinks she has college figured out. But as soon as classes begin at Boston University, she realized that this isn't high school. Luckily, her best friend JJ is there to help keep her in line. When Queenie meets Pudge, a homeless LGBT teen, her entire world is forever changed. With the help of Izzy, a strong-headed and beautiful social worker, Queenie learns how to be there for Pudge, leave her old habits behind and become the person she's always wanted to be.
